2010 Remaining Workshops

Summer is almost over and this is the time of year when I start my fall clean up routine. It is a time I embrace as I think about the patterns, fabrics and ideas I have collected and set aside for those winter months when I can start those projects. It's like my personal holiday to sort through the new, find things I have forgotten, and uncover the unfinished projects from last year that got put away when the hint of spring was in the air.

If you stumble upon an orphan quilt block or if you got bored with a wall hanging I would ask you to consider signing up for our October workshop with Sherry Whetstone and Embellish them. We have 9 openings left, so send me your class fee before October 5th [$20.00] and join the fun as we play with buttons, old jewelry, beads, ribbon, trims, embroidery threads and trinkets. Jill will have a soup & salad lunch if you are interested for an additional $7.00. The class will follow our regular guild meeting.

November is fast approaching and so is our Donna Lynn Thomas "Miniature Santa" workshop. Only 12 openings are available for this SKILLBUILDER! Class fee is $30.00 [additional $7.00 for the chili lunch]. This will be an all day class on November 10th.

It was fun to see the quilt tops started in our September workshops during Show & Tell – congrats to you for getting them finished! Well, it is time for me to open the windows, let the fresh air in and start sorting through my next projects.

Don't forget it is never too late to learn and be amazed by the wonders around you!

Mindy Roeske – Workshop Chair

Please remember that until you pay for a workshop your spot in the class is NOT confirmed. One more thing, if you have not paid your dues, you will be charged an additional $5.00 to take a workshop. If you have any questions please contact me.

YOUR

CALENDAR

October- Sherry Whetstone, international quilt artist trunk show (1/2 day workshop)

November – Donna Lynn Thomas – program: "Sew Much Flippin' Fun" (full day workshop)

December - Storyteller Carol Box

PLEASE NOTE: As many of you know the church where we meet has been having new plumbing and HVAC work done at our last 2 meetings. We just got word that the old ac system has failed almost completely now. The new system is not yet working and may not be working at the next few meetings. Be aware of this as you get ready for guild meeting - the room may be warmer than usual and there may be fans going in order to circulate the air. We are sorry for the inconvenience, especially for those of our members who have difficulty hearing or are affected by the heat. The new system is being installed sometime this fall or winter.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Wasn't our last speaker, Barbara Eikmeier so inspiring? So many great ideas for sashings! I took copious notes so I could remember her ideas, then went after and inspected close up so I could cement the ideas in my mind. I hope you all enjoyed her as much as I did. I do plan on buying the Marti Michell Sashing Star Set templates. Maybe there will be a run on it! I have some Halloween blocks that are crying out for wonky stars in the sashing!

Calling all great cooks! Jill Dean has an idea for raising money. She is full of wonderful ideas! We are planning on publishing a cook book. We need your best recipes right away. Plan on gathering them together and handing them in at the November meeting. I'm sure at our October meeting there will be more information relating to this project. I'm thinking there are so many different kinds of recipes that we will have to limit the theme to keep the book a manageable size.

I have been having so much fun getting to know my fellow officers and committee chairs. I have decided if I didn't know about them you might not either. I will feature three and you'll have to guess which three I'm talking about! Your choices are Candy Hargrove, Mindy Roeske, Carol Crouse, Karlene Cooper, Janie Wagner, Jill Dean or Gwen Wheeler. Good luck!

This gal is a native of New Jersey with a degree in elementary education. She met her husband at an all night concert at K-State. She stashes candy and cookies in her buffet for special occasions, then forgets they are there! I do that with presents, both birthday and Christmas!

This gal doesn't know how to swim, but learned to water ski. Binding is one of her favorite parts of quilting. She's hoping to win the Powerball so she can quit dusting and open a bed and breakfast. Wait. Wouldn't she have to dust her bed and breakfast?

This gal is a retired office worker from Yellow Roadway (you might know it by Yellow Freight). Her first quilting class was with Linda Potter in 2000. June Ford introduced her to our guild. She loves her dog.

MEMBERSHIP/PUBLIC RELATIONS

The 2011 Quilt show, Up and Away will run from May 5 -May 7, 2011. This is a Thurs. - Sat. run. We will be open each day from 10 - 6. Check in will be from 9-12 on Wed. May 4, 2011 and check out will be from 6 - 9 Sat. May 7, 2011. Set up will be all day Wed. May 4, 2011. This is Mother's Day weekend, but the show will not run on Sun. It is still at Savior Pastoral Center, 12601 Parallel Parkway, Kansas City Kansas. Pam Coleman needs a co-chair for the boutique. Items can be turned in at any time to Pam or Jill Dean.

need a ride? got a ride?

Attention guild members who are no longer able to drive yourselves to the meetings, our transportation chairman, Georganna Clark, would like to hear from you. She will arrange for one of our members to pick you up and bring you to the meetings. She can't promise this will happen every meeting but she will make it happen just as often as she can.

Now for you guild members who would be willing to pick another member up on your way, Georganna would like to hear from you, too. She only asks that you do this maybe 3 or 4 times a year, not every month. She will coordinate this effort and make arrangements so that no one will have to travel far from their normal route.

If you have transportation needs, or are willing to provide this service, please give Georganna a call. She's waiting to hear from you.
